semer to Investigate.

Coroner Messemer to-day requested the of James McGrath, a baker fiving at 234

East Twenty-fourth street, whom he

McGrath walked into the Mulberry street police station Sunday morning last the deak that he wanted to go to a hos-

He said that he had slept all night in and saving that McGrath was simply suf-

McGrath repeated his story of being charge of stealing a horse and wagon. Hi son, Joseph Dobbins, was arrested last Monday for picking pockets on Broadway and was held in $100 bail.

in Sorrow at His Death.

Capt. William McMickan, the Commodore

"I heard some one say that Wall street

At a seaside-resort hotel, First Burglar-Well, did you get the lewels

Sick Headache

Hood's Sarsaparilla

100 DOSES ONE BOLLAR

of the Chicago woman? Second Burglar-No; the notel prop-presented his bill just before I got ther

May art's from stomach troubles, bills

Broadway to the river

it runs in a straight line from suspects is the victim of foul play.

pital.

Hospital.

resterday morning.

SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 6. SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

(Including Postage); 03.50 PER YEAR.

VOL. 81......NO. 10,609

red at the Post-Office at New York as second WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1267 BROADWAY between 31st and 32d sts., New York. BROOKLYN - 35w FULTON ST. HARLEM -News Department, 150 East 12578 st., Advertisements at 237 East 11578 st., PHILADRIPHIA, PA.—LEDORR BULDERS, 113 Scoth Gras st. WASHINGTON—610 14TH ST. ONDON OFFICE-32 COCESFUR ST., TRAFAL-

A WORD TO THE ENIGHTS.

MAN SQUARK.

The community is thrilled with horror, discust and indignation at the derailing An act like this has the malice in it of crime. strongly.

gers, and that not very serious, is simply were actually overturned.

This does not affect the malice of the miserable perpetrators of this deed. From the way in which the cars were derailed and by reason of the present condition of affairs on the Central road, suspicion will be cast upon the strikers, and hence the good name of the Knights of Labor is endangered.

There is a report that the Knights have offered a reward of $1,000 for the discovery of the miscreants. The New York Central has offered a reward of $5,000 for

The Knights could not do a better thing. It is to be hoped that no one in their organization was at all implicated in this dastardly outrage. But if the fiends were Kuights the organization should be no less interested in discovering them, that they may drive from their body and bring to speedy justice the worst enemies they could possibly have.

REPUBLICAN SIMPLICITY.

A relic of the Stewart mansion is to be the millionaire had made by a dozen skilled workmen, who for six months gave their whole energies to its construction. And for what? That a President of the Republic of the United States of America might sleep upon it for one night.

If President GRANT slept in that bed it is to be hoped that he was ignorant of its her German progenitors, plays the piano history. Such an outrageous piece of extravagance ought to be a possibility only in the realms of the Shah.

There was a time when the President of lican simplicity. Luxury is right enough Maidens are simply Mabel Sweet, while the in its way, but such a display of it for a matron signs herself Mabel Sweet Heart. republican ruler was in very bad taste.

The War Office in England has done one The War Office in England has done one thing highly commendable in a kingdom where justice as saily tempered to the side of position and rank. Some army officers personned a grown beautiful former of black lace, or the pale bine officers persecuted a young heutenant, chiffon mousseline with woven black bor-The case became known at the War Office, ders. and also turquoise brocades with and the result is that two officers have trimmings of black mousseline do so.e. at their commissions, and four others have been put at the bottom of the promotion list. This looks like British fair play.

Fall weather in America means any kind time stealing her beauty from her she beof weather, and usually all kinds of comes conscious of the many charming weather. This hot, muggy streak is of the July or August pattern, while last week's was a full-blooded November type. one who has seen life in its many phases and Well, we must weather it, as we have be-

Is the country going to become an annex to the Pension Bureau? It is one over. thing for a nation to reward its defenders; but it is quite another for spotlsmen to pluck a country bare in the name of Ton Rgen does not seem to be meeting with that wild outhusiasm, even on his native heath, which he might have desired. The Maine Republicans may be ou to " Tom after all.

SPOTLETS.

When a policeman eats fruit at a stand without paying for it, it is a bad example of tree trade.

The rise in Democratic votes in Vermont was not a "green mount" affair. The Chicago boarding house keepers have or-Boulanger still hopes to play a winning gain in France. But France will not have the Gaul to ganized a trust. The boarders will be giad to 2.4

In the case of partnership in literary work the team is oftener a tandom than a span-

What a good paper the congressional Record Piffed and ticked sceves, all so fashionable should be. Nothing gets in it but what is good, are so arranged that the elbow has full play.

The Absent Friend.

Rdith Miss Oldbor has gone to Shelter the three front breadths are of the plain blue gingban.

Interest the Gentler Sex.

Advice to Ambitious Girls-Corange protecting the chest. Flowers No Longer the Thing-Cattalls as Ornaments.

in plenty. Now I do word to discourage the one who thinks she is doing right in walking in this path, striped with it, It is a hard one to travel, and for the traveller there is not the gentle protection, the kindly consideration which is her lot at

But oneht con to go? May not the life. of a passenger train on the Central Rail. work for you be in the home? May not the road yesterday by unknown miscreants. reward of industry be a sense of duty done. and the love of those around you? We are revenge, of theft and of murder, or rather all too prone to accept these rewards as of scores of murders. Hanging is too commonpiace, and only what should come light a punishment for such a diabolical tous, whereas they are, my dear girls, the It cannot be executed too brightest jewels that shine in the crown of woman. Look at home. On the work that The fact that there was no loss of life is waiting for you there. Do not underestimate its value. Whatever it is, doit with and physical injury to only four passen- a willing heart and a quick hand. Think it your pleasure to do it well. Make it your marvellous when one reflects that several delight to be so successful that the home sleeping coaches full of people were people will praise you. And if sometime brought to an abrupt halt by obstacles on you give a thought to the big, gay world, the track and that some of the coaches where each is for herself and only God for all, be ashamed of the sigh that you give, remembering that you are working where God thinks it best for you to do so, and that you only merit displeasure when you scorn your work, or do it as do those who think

Don't, dou't, dear girl, rush away from your home. Think it all out first and see where mother needs you. Then, after all, you get a better reward than any other worker, for you receive the blessing of God and the loving thanks of a mother.

Flowers no longer figure in the complete ilet. This is due, probably, to the misuse of roses, which ruined the dress and destroyed the beauty of the figure. Refined women no longer adopt the huge bonquet Tiny postes are pinned in the bosom, meked in the beit and pinned in the loops of the sash ribbon. Field daisies, roppies, dahlas and carnations are sought for this purpose.

princes the lost her heart to the plebeian spots are grouped in high colors or set in Prince Alexander of Battenburg, in whose rows and stripes. comance Bismarck played the part of the cruel father, is now betrothed to Prince disposed of by auction. It is a bed which Adolph of Schaumburg-Lippe. This is not considered a brilliant match for the young better alliance offers. Princess Victoria has merry bine eyes and fair bair, with the superb health that indefatiguable walks, rides, games of tennis and driving four-in-hand teams insure. Moreover, she inherits the gifts of music from her English as well as and the Lanjo well, stogs delightfully, is full of fun, and is a chief favorite in the formal Court of St. James.

It has come to be generally understood favorite coloring for evening dresses a

Women take great risks when they wed their juniors. Jealousy, that meanest of passions, often gains central of the woman who is older than her mate, for as she sees young women in the world, and tears that her place may be filled by one of them. Be who can guide you over the rocky place; one who, by experience, has learned that it is not always wise to obey impulse, but that any important duty should be well thought

Little cattails are in demand for mantel decoration. The small rushes are dipped in silver and put in a narrow-necked jar of delf or willow chius.

Feminine names are constantly being doctored. The daughter of Sir George M. Pullman writes her name Harriette. Good old Sarah has been reduced by amoutation to Sara. All the Phorbes are now Phobe, Louisa is Louise, Margaret has become Marguerite, and stately (atherine has been supplanted by Kath yrm and Julia is Juliette.

Eighteen out of twenty women walk on The heir heals, and nineteen of the score hollow their backs by projecting the stomach.

Small poufs are worn in the face of the

The handkerchief ring is again in vogue. more from necessity than ornament. The modiste being unable to locate a pocket c veniently, it has become necessary to find a substitute. There is a decided aversion to the coreage as a place of safety, hence the return of the ring. The present styles of making dresses are, Dr. McGiyan is accused of trying to make fun have ever prevailed for business women. of Henry George. This is the sincle tax on The large leg-o'-mutton sleeves permit free tue of the upper arm, while the gathered,

The sigris, too, while pretty and here ing, are well adapted to every-day use. They There is something balleful to the cutton cross. are hime in long, straight folds and though A smooth bare can talk better when it is a gun French method of varring the monotour of ful, are almost devoid of drapery. A pretty the perfectly plain shirt is to make the breadths of different materials. The three back breadths, for example, are of blue and wit if ?

Secreto-No, not exactly—it's on an arm of Most of the new serge gowns are made Ather-And I suppose she wanted to have with plain skirss with one row of braid about the hem, Gold, sliver, red, black and be matched in the tint of the braiding on the vest or the shirt worn in its place. A striking serge of many blue has a serror with the same silk, and with lapels buttoned back to show their brilliant lining in fair weather, but available in case of need for Fringes of hair above the forehead have een denounced over and over again, but they still prevail, and are likely to do so in-HE girl of the period tremely improving in their effect around silk shirt, and a jaunty little jacket faced is bright, aiert, am- nearly every face, except, perhaps the She looks woman with a very low forehead. Instead of wasting good money on a would make a great more lined with white ally. This augment every purpose, looks pretty, wears well, can ward of fame-money be bought for to or made at home for half

> A very pretty white gown of thick, clothlike flannel has a row of gold braid round | belief in their innocence the edge, its bodies outlined with gold braid, and the sleeves perpendicularly

The entomological craze in bonnet decorawings as fine as filigree, supported by a still larger black lace butterfly behind it forms the entire substance of a dress hat, A dragon fly, tail unward, sgainst a knot of pale gray chiffon, ornaments one bonnet; natural bees on a gray green creps ground to make one apprehensive, univering on a groin. fles onivering on the flower sprays, and for fair bair have folds of green velvet under the brim.

omeiet, which is made as follows: Peel two night Monday, with blood flowing in How It Was Done, as Related by or three tomatoes, cut them into slices and fry them in butter adding a little sait and pepper; best eggs enough for an omelet; heat some butter in a frying pan, pour in the eggs, and after mixing in the tomatoes, cook as plain omelet.

The new goods are crowding the shops. Large oval spots, shaded cubes, and pastilles of long fleece as soft as silk are woven in the new carnel's-hair goods, sometimes in lighter shades than that of the ground, again in black and often in a prettily contrasting color-golden brown on green, turquoise on dahlia, gray on bine, and Suede on chestnut brown. Mediavai designs and heraldic figures copied from designs and heraldic figures copied from designs and heraldic figures confed from old tapestries are of raised broche weaving done in the Jacquard looms, or else are oothly woven, and appear to be sunken in smoothly woven, and appear to be sunken in the fabric. The black touch is most effectively given in light flecks of rough black threads appearing irregularly in brown, green, dahlia, or gray camel's hair. Little figures and flower branches are woven amid Princess Victoria of Prussia, who was sup- flaky threads in home-puns, and petit pois

ATHLETES IN REPOSE

J. W. Judge is considered one of the fastes lady, who is the most agreeable member of the restriction of the fastest her somewhat supercitions family, but no faunts the colors of the Riversida Wheelmen. Paintends to make a big wheeling record this Fall.

> W. A. Lyon is one of the most enthusiastic members of the New York Tennis Club. He follows up each day's contests and knows the relative tennis stand ng of each member of the Club, so It is said. A. J. Bushman, of the Ravenswood Boat Club.

has devoted considerable time to rowing this Summer. He is a strong fellow and is useful in the waint of the ciub's eight-oared crews.

Jock Dempsey, of the Atalanta Boat Club, wh the United States rode up to the White that uniess a lady uses three names at the crew, is also a notable single sculler. If holds thouse on a simple cob. That was republed of her letter she is unmarried, the cautain a medal, signifying the single scull famous champion four-oared shell champtonship of the Club. He intends to b

STOLEN RHYMES.

Years Ago. LORIS AGO.

Lonce was young, ab me' ab me!
How lone arout used to be
How lone arout used to be
And when its iar-old girty seems to like the leaven of my desams.
And patisted mentory in vain
lerstades me of my youth arain;
Time stakes his hour-girs in my face,
Whets its old scyttle with solenin grace,
And whispers me in a seems lone.

'Bon, that was years ago.

Long years and years ago. Long years and years ago."

Long years and years ago."

I am not old and yet, not yet,
Would that sometimes one major forget.
Would that sometimes one major forget,
When life was yound how that sweet line
Nake withing and gray halts a crime.
Now, the anexity kindled fire,
It love less up with fresh desire,
Time rends him dawn with rule grimace, Bloves the sold ashes in my face and churches while the cinders glow.

"Non, that was years ago." Long years and years ago, "
Long years and years ago, "
Edwar a, Baphine, in Judge

A Country Courtship. iving the cows from the upper meadow-least; and fitted and fless, win the sunjest, now in the shadow, not now in the wind's areas; the marks area as a more the starling awant to the sales to telli-ille, the frame's daughter and darling, a eastrip; massiown the hill.

Purple and black are the braided treenes i erdanisty tentiles that crown. Light is ner step on the award it presses. As fail of the thinten down. The entiretty peel from the wayside bedres, is the tradition moves along.

An occurs it risk of their privileges to that to her located song.

Down where the siders and siender rushes hown where the anders and senter runs.
Border the rivilet w bonds,
in the wilened aways or the water gushes
there a bridge abroad panels;
shiring a tote sens. In broken enatches—
Bis hat pushed back from his brows—
Bis hat pushed back from his brows—
Bis that pushed back from his brows—
Bir the comme of the cows.

Up to their knees in the stream, the cuttle strink sleep of recreated down. Little they care for the levers prattle by the telesche team may know. Their beaving sides with their draughts tended. tended.
They enter the path scaln,
his on the grasses with heads low bended,
the situer side of the lane.

The shadows deepen, the dew is aprinkling with diamonds all the meals. bith diamonds all the nearly And ann and is, in the detence trailing. The sound of the bells recones.

Sint on the tridge where the water gistens, As the noonlight on it fails.

The adjire talks, and the manien listens, But the cows are in their stales.

But the cows are in their stale.

Little Wheels. The weaver waits for the spinner's rarr, the shanner's rafe for wait at wood. The sheavers waits in the fragrant bears by the sheaver waits in the fragrant bear but the sheep that grare by the needow fine fallen salesp by a sheltering rock that shall also by a sheltering rock while minut a baby in Beston town is crying for want of a soft ways gown.

he shearers threatened in laintuner atrong. The weavers with can hever be told he wheel he she when he she when he she when he she when he she will be she with a she were are curper with cold, or the shear here had who is alreading will so attack which the world's a real milk, and the world while round that seek the she will be seek that we would she would be seek that we would be seek that we draumed this draum but an hour ago. When I awoke to my aurestas when I awake to my aurprise

I of Emi mirre sello plan fo and fro
And lashy a first threshe into his eyes.
On what little shoel was running away
And makine so lolly a baby cy Ill his lase was as red as a roppy's mile

"Was Ming Jassia to Wide Araba.

"Was Ming Jassia to Wide Araba.

Widows and Widows. I From Judge! 'The young woman who has just pass you referred to as 'the widow. Yes, replied the college student.

college."

white, which is the last tint med, are all BAFFLES ALL THE POLICE. FRIENDS IN NEED.

Fads, Facts and Fancies Which rim of scarlet braid about its orige, a scarlet They Can Find No Traces of Mallaschutz's Murderer.

> Some Inquiries They Have Not Made Walsh to Be Freed.

Richard Walsh and his wife Sarah, were brought down from the Yorkville prison this morning, where they have been locked up on suspicion of murdering Franz Mallaschutz, the Austrian nurse, Nell Nelson tells of a Few Pathetic and arraigned in Supreme Court Changcorded silk or embroutered baby cloak, put bers before Judge Patterson, on writ of the sweet little creature in a brown cash- habeas corpus procured by their lawyer, Ambrose Purdy. Mr. Pardy moved for the discharge of his clients because there was no evidence cainst them, and Pecause Cant. Gunner. who arrested them, had since declared his Judge Patterson dismissed the writ and Little Sidner.

refused to discharge the prisoners. Although admitting that the evidence against them was not sufficient to hold tion increases as the season advances, and them, still be thought they might better butbrilles and dragon fles continue to be remain a day or so longer in jail and be ing visited the rooms at 318 East Seventypret street, in one of which Franz Mal lasebutz was found dving last Monday decorate another, and wasps so reslistic as night with a fearful stab wound in the His wife, whom the police now rosette of brown crape, are on a third, strongly suspect of murdering him, and Fantastic lace-trimmed hats is en with his stepdaughter moved out of the rooms orchids have whole flocks of these butter. Thursday. They have gone to College

In the tedroom where Policeman Ham of the East Sixty-seventh street station A delicacy relished by many is the tomato found the murdered man, about midstreams from his wound, there is a big blaich of bood on the cast wall, as if the man had been lying down when the fatal blow was struck, and that the blood had gushed forth in sports immediately

In view of all the facts which Tur. do not show more activity in the matter.
Mallaschutz was a en alive at 10 o'clock of the fatal night by the housekeeper, who was going through the hall turning out the gas. She lives in the next house, and when leaving No. 318 she shut and locked the front door after her.
After that no one could get into the house without ringing a hell, or using a house without ringing a bell, or using a night-key, which no one is supposed to have unless belonging in the house. The have unless belonging in the house. The detectives do not know who entered or detectives do not know who entered or left the house between 10 r. m. and midney and the first state of the house between 10 r. m. and midney and the first state of the house though, say that at least one man range the bell after that is, bick was—behind time, and a muss with four men, neither of whom we were—that is, bick was—making her he keew nor could describe. One of them he had a clear track and the right of knowled him.

Dick—had a clear track and the right of way.

McGrath had no money when he was left the mouse brokes in the bouse, though, say that at least one man rang the bell after the outer door was closed.

Who was he?
Capt. Gunner suspects, with apparent reason, the dead man's wife of knowing or having reas n to know who murdered him. She is fifty-five years old—twenty year her husband's senior. He was known to be fond of the society of young women. He treated his stepdaughter very affectionately, and his wite admits that he frequently gave her cause to be jedous by 'running after other women.'

Mrs. Mallaschatz was subjected to a strict examination by Capt. Gunner last ments which site made to him before.

"Did you know he sas going into Walsn's rooms Monday night?" he asked ber.

"Not muticafter he was in there."

Into note that he right of way.

Af we feet shead of the pilot it was as taken to the hospital, but the police was, into anything we'd know more ablance as nothing. We were driving into the chass at the rate of sixty miles an hour. I could not help thusing that if we ran into anything we'd know more about the other world than was ever written in books, and I said a little prayer that 16n in books, and I said a little prayer that 16n in books, and I said a little prayer that 16n in books, and I said a little prayer that 16n in books, and I said a little prayer that 16n in books, and I said a little prayer that 16n in books, and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books and I said a little prayer that 16n in books ments which she made to him before.

"Did you know he was going into Walsh's rooms Monday night?" he asked her.

Not until after he was in there.

"Did his going there make you angry?"

Yes. My neighbors had told me Mrs.

Walsh was a bad woman who always drank beer. I went in after him and ordered him home. He would not come. I let him and crossed the half into my own room. I letcked the door and saw him no more norther.

rousers stained with bood down to the nds, but overlooked the stockings until flurashay, when they say they found not seen of blood or them.

Is it likely that Mallachutz was out in his bare test? If not, the stockings, which overlanged the drawers, must surely have been stained. There is no blood on his shoes, but he may have worn all peers. The police don't know what he were, and Ars. Mailaschutz can't be saked, because she has gone out of town. The detectives seem to have confined all their energy to seeking for the wespon with which the deed was committed. It would, indeed be a most important clue. with which the deed was committed. It would, indeed, be a most important clue, and capt, timmer said this morning that the world give a month's salary to find it.

This offer reached the ears or the children on Seveny-first street, and now there are all instances with the element that dren on Seventy-first street, and now they are all searching the cellars and closets in the block trying to find the knife, and they may succeed.

Inspector Williams has at last realized the importance of the case, and vesterday had a long talk with Cantain franner.

The new who have been investigating the case admit themselves belled, and new blood should be infused in the investigation that justice may be done. Meanwhile Richard Walsh and his wife, who were fest arrested, languish in prison. They will be brought before the Coroner Monday, when they will probably be discharged.

Nye in the Catskills.

The Tompkinsville Tourist finds a snug place where he can see several St tes. See the SUN-DAY WORLD.

The Qualification. First Tradesman-Is he a gentleman ? Second Tradesman-Well, I suppose so. He doesn't pay his debis till you make him a skilful typesetter.

The Sunny Side of the Trouble. Drummer-The strike on the New York Central caused a great deal of annogance: but it gave rise to a number of amusing incidents.

Commuter-Yes: what a fund of new Commuter-Yes; what a fund of new stories it will furnish to President Depew!

by you want to relieve the diseases of tenthing A pearl worth 23,000 was recently safely give Mozant's Travelles Complai. 25c. "." the Piequienies Siver, near Argyle, Win Generous "Evening World" Readers Give Aid to the Suffering.

Sick Babies Armad for the Battle of Life.

Cases.

THE EURSCRIPTIONS.

reinnely acknowledged.....

Inclosed find check for $14, the proceeds of a fair held by four little girls in Mouroe A large gold butterfly, with fine as tiligree, supported by a black lace butterfly behind it.

The substance of a dress bat.

> Two Brooklyn Sympathizers, to the Edwar

Fund, and hope it will do some good to re after. On the north wall there is a long streak of blood, as if the morterer had waved the pory knife aloft after plunging it into his victus, bedy. Then there is a place where the blood has evidently been walled to be a says a writer to be a shook hands, and he introduced me to his fireman, a young fellow, with large, truthful, honest eyes and the most innocent-looking face I ever naw, says a writer in the Philadelphia Inquirer. Perched on the seat was a huge black cat, ugly, as scraggy, and with a ground plan of fur that looked like a railroad map, it was so ploughed and cut up. Naturally I noticed the cat and asked what it was doing there. That's a wonderful cat," said the youthful fireman, "and thereby hangs a tale. Do you want it?"

"Well, about a week ago we—Dick and me—were making the run between Philadelphia and Trenton. It was a dirty, black hight—cold and a driving sain, and we were—that is, Dick was—behind time, and we were—that is, Dick was—behind time, and the was worth. We—that is, Dick—haid a clear track and the right of way.

"Monday morning an officer came to see me and told me was at St. Vincent's way in such pain that I didn't question him much. He told me though that some one had kicked him but he couldn't remember much, and I think must lave been drinking when he was assuited for his money."

Hugh McGrath, the dead man's brother, and the right of way.

Monday morning an officer came to see me and told me was at St. Vincent's way in such pain that I didn't question him much. He told me though that some one had kicked him that I didn't question him much. He told me though that wone one had kicked him that I didn't question him much. He told me though that wone one had kicked him that I didn't question him much. He told me though that wone had it leads to prove the same and told me was at St. Vincent's way in such pain that I didn't question him much. He told me though that lave been drinking when he was at law to be couldn't remember much, and I think must lave been drinking when he was assuited for his money."

Hugh McGrath, the dead man's brother, and the remember much and I don't believe he was assuited for his money."

Hugh McGrath, the dead man's brother, and the was with four men, neither to way in such pain that I didn't question him much. He told me was at St. Vincent's Monday morning an officer came to see me and told me was at St. Vinc cent-looking face I ever saw, savs a writer ularmed about him and went to Believue

"Suidenly there was an awful crash directly in front of me, a splintering of glass in the cab window, and this cat came tumbling in. My heart got right up in my throat, and I thought I'd choke. I saw Dick turn pale, and, terrihed as I Waish was a bai woman who always dratik beer. I went in after him and ordered him home. I went in after him and ordered him home. I went in after him and ordered him home. I went in a way it was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick it was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember been glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember been glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember been glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember been glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his beat, though—Dick was, I remember being glad of it.

was. I remember being glad of it.

"He didn't lose his hea i, though—Dick crossed the hall into my own room. Heaked the door, and when it ocened it he staggered in, with his hand on his said when he craim was alonged we—that and reproached me for not going to his ald when he exist me." Did you take off his soot and vest?"

"Did you take off his soot and vest?"

"Did you take off his selectives to be took them off himself."

"But you told me vesteriay that he took them off and his shoes, too."

"Well, I didn't. He pulled off his shoes and then fell on the best."

"Well, I didn't. He pulled off his shoes and then fell on the best."

"He had apet cat which followed him himself up the track to signal us."

"He had apet cat which followed him himself."

"He had sopen feet of where we had breath wheth had seen it, and had stationed himself up the track to signal us."

"He had apet cat which followed him himself."

"He didn't lose his hea i, though—Dick and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him. He tried and was anxious to secare bail for him he will was had to such that the call when the trail.

Did not the more marks of the book them off himself."

"He had apet cat which followed him a lever of its the cat was a wit

Then there is not a sign of blood until the bedreem is reached. There it is splashed all around. There is not a stain on the coat and vest. The marks of the knife are on both coat and vest, but the police tuiled to note if the knife cuts in the cloth corresponded with the wound. They found the dock.

They found the dock. Cunard Flags at Half-Mast To-Day of the Cunard fleet and Commander of the believe tailed to note if the knife cuts in the cloth corresponded with the wound in the body.

They found the deadman's drawers and rousers stained with bood down to the mis. but overlooked the steerings until hursilay, when they say they found not seen of blood or "Mont Vernon! What a liar that fellow is!" said Dick to me in a whisper. "He bas the reputation of being the biggest lar on the road. That astory is his latest "asyed the train' husiness. I saw him fish that cat out of a ditch two days ago." steamship Umbria, after crossing the ocean sign of blood on them. Is it like y that Mallachutz was out in MADE THEIR OWN TELEPHONES.

made the two days ago."

Made the two days ago

affont, and it was discovered that about a year ago one of their number, an educated Chinese, conceived the idea of manufacturing a telephone for his use, he having been engaged in electrical experiments for some time.

The telephone proved a success, so he made some for friends of his, and finally several for triends of his friends, charging them only enough to pay for material with a little more added, but the telephone never costing over $10. Of course it was all an infringement upon the rights of the Pacific Telephone Company, but they were "childlike and bland," and perfectly innocent when they were spoken perfectly innocent when they were spoken to upon the subject.

WORLDLINGS.

The youngest member of the next Congress will be J. M. Bailey, of Trans, who is only twenty-five years of age. Frince Louis, of Statisherg, is one of the few royal personages of Europe able to support themselves by means of a trade or profession. He is a skilful typesetter.

direct or dafinite cause. But the meanache is a sure indication that there is something wrong somewhere, and whatever the cause, it cod's Saraspiles is a reliable remedy for headache, and for all troubles which near require a consequence. It cause dwapens, bit causes of a trade of the code of the

for all troubles which seem to require a corrective and regulator. It curse dyspectal, bitsolly the tallest man in the country. He stands 7 iset 7 inches in his stockings, and is twentyseem years old. He wife in nearly six feet high and wearls 200 pounds. The Pope is said to have grown very thin, but his health, considering his great age, is very good. He eats but lit is and keeps up his strongth sold by all druggists, $1; ats for $5. Prepared chashy by means of a strong broth. A pearl worth $3,000 was recently found in

HE WAS KICKED TO DEATH UMBRELLA STORIES.

James McGrath Dies from the Brand New Ancedotes About the Effects of a Brutal Beating. Ever Elusive Parachute.

The Police Asked by Coroner Mes-Tales To'd in Competition for a Gold Double Eagle.

police to investigate the mysterious death No Letters Will Be Received After 6 O'Clock To-Night.

The Umbrella Contest closes at a c'clock this evening. No letters received after about 10 c'clock and told the sergeant at that time will be entered in the competi-

Those entering this contest must comply wagon the night before and had been with the following regulations:

Letters must not be more than 200 words kicked in the groin on Grand street by a man whom he did not know and could not describe. An ambulance was called, They must be servited on one side of the fering from the colic, the surgeon hustled company each letter, not for publication, him in and took him to St. Vincent's but for identification. Letters must be addressed to Umbretta Another examination disclosed the fact noner onto.

Editor, P. O. Box 2, 354. that he was suffering from peritonitis. A gold dutible engle will be given for the from which he died in great agony early Leve Story.

Caused Her Drowning

kicked to the house physician, who in 'Twas St. Patrick's Day, and I was hurturn informed Coroner Messemer, but the rying to catch a morning boat from victim was unable to recollect his Brooklyn to New York. A stout motherly assailant or the exact place of the assault. looking old women followed in the same Find, and hope it will do some good to relieve some of the poor little sufferers of their many ills, and hope the good work will succeed. Many and Entire Dr Moutins, 1070 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn.

THE CAT SAVED THE TRAIN.

THE CAT SAVED THE TRAIN.

How it was Done, as Related by the Honest Young Fireman.

As the train was about to pull out of the Broad street station I recognized an old friend in the engineer. Henodded to me and I jumped into the cab. Dick and I was perfectly sober and had a few little and hope it will do some good to relieve some his kicked twice, once in the groin and once in the chest. The groin and once in the chest. The former had produced hernis, which Corner Messemer thinks was the primary cause of death.

McGrath had evidently been kicked twice, once in the groin and once in the chest. The former had produced hernis, which Corner Messemer thinks was the primary cause of death.

McGrath had evidently been kicked twice, once in the groin and once in the chest. The former had produced hernis, which Corner Messemer thinks was the primary cause of death.

McGrath had evidently been kicked twice, once in the groin and once in the chest. The former had produced hernis, which Corner Messemer thinks was the primary cause of death.

McGrath had evidently been kicked twice, once in the groin and once in the chest. The former had produced hernis, which Corner Messemer thinks was the primary cause of death.

McGrath had evidently been kicked twice, once in the chest.

The former had produced hernis, which Corner Messemer thinks was the primary cause of death.

McGrath had evidently been kicked twice, once in the chest.

The former had produced hernis, which Corner Messemer thinks was the primary cause of death.

McGrath had evidently been kicked twice, on the large covered to keet to m Market, and carried on her as a large covered to keet to m Market, and carried on her sold had a few ends to the end a chest and save, between her as a large covered to keet to m Market, and carried on her sold had quick!" One brave passenger spran, overcord to her assistance. Too late ble had sunk the last time.

When drawn up on the wharf she was already dear!. The basket was still upon her arm, the umbrella in her grass, and cieuched between her teeth was the silver com I had previously noticed.

A Tale of the Blizzard.

When I arrived at the school-house there were so few there we were dis-missed. When quite a distance from home the wind blew my umbrella from m, hand and a huge drift prevented my recover ng it. Just then a gentleman came along and said:

"Never mind your umbrella, little girl, but try and reach home, kindly assisting me to do so."

Here she commenced to mourn for here where the commenced to mourn for here where the commenced to mourn for here."

dear little umbrel.a." which I former! About an hour afterwords a tap at th kitchen window caused us to look in that direction and my sister to exciain: "Mamma, mamma, there is my umbrella

The snow had drifted so badly mamm The show had drifted so radiy maining had to lower the window from the top in order to reach it. Despite the fact that it had been lost nearly half a mile away and had blown such a distance, it was not injured in any way and we still treasure it as a memento or the blizzard. Darsy. neld at the Tombs this morning to answer a Bought Bread with It.

My sister and I lost our father and mother when very young. We left Dub- him only a bundle of straw.

Vicissitudes of an Umbrella One Christmas my wife gave me a hand some umbrella, with my name engraved nearly five hundred times and travelling on the handle. The following mouth, in 2,000,000 miles over sea, has reached his going from New York to Toronto, I left irner's end. He died yesterday in Liver- it in the depot at Niagara Falls, and did pool. The flags on the Cunard Steamship not miss it until the train was leaving 1s poor indeed who does not have company's buildings are at half-mast in Suspension Bridge. I rushed to the door

A PERFECT HARMESS DRESSING

USED BY MEN. WOMEN AND CHILDREN. or dysprovia, and many persons are subject to periodic headaches for which they can ascribe no A SHINE LASTS A WEEK. LEATHER PREERVER. A HANDSOME POLISH. IS WATER-PROOF.

EVERY Household EVERY Office EVERY Mechanic EVERY Stable THE IK-GON TRY IV.

WILL BYAIN GLAS AND CHINAWARS OF LAS.

WILL BYAIN YOUNG GLO BRANKEYS

WILL BYAIN YOUNG GLO BRANKEYS

WILL BYAIN BARY & COACH AND

ALWAYS HAWKING AND SPITTING HOW CATARRIL ANNOTED MR

REARD, OF BROOKLYN. He Saus He Tried Everything He Heavy

Of, but Never Got Any Seller Units He Went to Dre. Blair and Copeland, and Now He Feels Like Another Person. Mr. Walter H. Beard has been engaged for the sat four years as an exhant in the tarriture store folial W. Macon, 137, Pani et., in this care, He ica at 108 Degraw et. Brooktes. During a re-ent interview Mr. Beard and to the writer.

MR. WALTER H. BEARD.

MR. WALTER H. BEARD.

"Two rears are I caught a coid which developed into chronic externt. I tried everything I heard of, hat never got any relief. I exactly cold easily, I may executed to be without one. My heard eathful and dull, Very often it would ache beyribly. My cre gives week and waterel easily. My nose was stopped up first on one side them on the other. Often it would bleed freely. At night I would like in hed with my mouth wide open in order to be the Munico relief and part of my heart to be the Munico relief and part of my heart to be the Munico relief and order to be the Munico relief and part of my heart to clear my inread of this moune. As the dorder to clear my inread of this moune. As the dorder to clear my inread of this moune. As the direct meaning of detrees at my stomatch, My munit has exacted with a sinky slima, and I felt worse than when I had retired the night before. I had pairs in the cheek, side and back, and coughed a dry, hacking cough my in the side and back, and coughed a dry, hacking cough my my town left me one by one, and I feel like another person now.

"Dre. Blair & Opeland furnish medicines free

DOCTORS BLAIR & COPELAND,

NEW YORK OFFICES:

92 5TH AVE., NEAR 14TH ST.;

47 WEST 42D ST., NEAR BROADWAY:

"Drs. Blair & Cupeland furnish medicines fre of charge, and their treatment in very low."

BROOKLYN OFFICE: 149 PIERREPONT ST., where they treat with success all curable opens.
Specialties—Catarrh and all diseases of the fra ar, Throat and Lings, Chronic Diseases. Adress all mail to 92 5th are, New York City, Hyou live far away write for Symptom Sheet, Office Hours—Bit 011, 30 A. M. 16 4 P. M. 18 10 A. M. 1

The first morning of the blizzard of 1888 my younger sister started for school, and as the storm increased we anxiously saying: "You're getting extravagant awaited her return. About 11 o'clock found this in the rack," handing me my feel to the storm of the storm of

To a man out of work Poverty appears as a most terrible object, but let that man have the courage born of profitable employment and he finds the ghost that haunted

Poverty has no terrors for those who use WORLD "Wants." A man is poor indeed who does not have

People Were Strong Then. (From the Jeweilers' Circular,) Donnenwetter (who is always informing others on matters they take no interest in)falking about watches, do you know that they have been in use only since 1461? Nocheliumal—That's interesting; what did people carry before that time? Donnerwetter—I guess sun dials. One Way to Exercise High-Priced Doctor-You are now convascent and all you need is exercise. You hould walk ten, twenty, thirty miles a day. sir but your walking should have an object.

Patient-All right, doctor. It travel around trying to borrow enough to pay your bill.

Her Natural Thought. (From Munery's Working.)
"What are you reading, dear?" asked Mrs. Livewast, of Chicago,
"I'm reading about the fall of the Bastile." replied Livewayt.

It was blown down by one of these ter-rible erclones. I suppose?" What, Ho! Gien Echo! "I undergrand President Harrison is buying real estate in Glou Echo. What's the meaning of that r"

"I guess he's looking for a place where he'll be able to hear himself quoted occa-